

A 1991 graduate of Kings Park, Jill Meredith Czerepinski left for college and went out to travel the world. Among her stops were Siena College in New York and Regents College in England.

Mrs. Giles has been associated with WGBH Educational Foundation and the famous Antiques Roadshow ever since finishing her college years. Her positions with the Antiques Roadshow have grown from site work manager to selecting antiques for production presentation. Her involvement has taken her to scores of cities and states in the United States.

Her involvement directly and indirectly with countless artifacts that have proven rare and very historic has given her an educational opportunity never realized in formal education. The young lady from Kings Park has touched some rare items and walked with antique experts.

Jill Giles