

Lou Cutell was born in 1932. By eleven years old he earned roles in Italian plays. In 1946 he moved to California and from fourteen years on he played the stage, the movies, and television.

Over the years, Lou worked both the East and West Coast. He did over 800 variety shows for the Military. Several very popular commercial ads featured Lou for years. With hundreds of spots on television, Lou became well known on Long Island.

In 2012, he signed with Betty White for her new program, "Off their Rockers". The list of Lou's acting accomplishments is very extensive.

The little boy from San Remo who lost his dad and moved to the West Coast lifted himself up by working. The list of well know works that Lou participated in is staggering. He has put in nearly 70 years of acting in order to achieve success in the United States. Lou Cutell is the American Dream played out to its fullest.