

Pamela M. Schmidt

A 1984 graduate of Kings Park High School, Pamela Schmidt went to C.W. Post for one year before working for the Suffolk County Executive Office. After winning a scholarship to the New York Academy of Dramatic Arts, she began pursuing a career in drama.

Pam studies technique and scene study at the Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute with Irma Sandrey and Diane Iverson. At the Herbert Berkoff Studio she concentrated on scene study and improvisation with E. Graham Chambers and Erle Hyman. Technique was studied at the Stella Adler School. She is a member of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and Screen Actors Guild.

Her credits in film are found in Far From Heaven, Unfaithful, Brooklyn Sonnet, and Leading Man. Her roles on television include several Law and Order roles, The Young and the Restless, Soprano's, Sex and the City, and Ed. Her theatre roles include Diary of Ann Frank, Sound of Music, The Only Game in Town, and The Glass Menagerie. Combine all this with several commercials and you have an eclectic career in drama.
