

Robert Walsh

Robert Walsh comes from a long time attachment to Kings Park life and community. His extended family participated in all aspects of pre-WWII town life. Robert graduated Kings Park High School, Class of 1943.

Robert has spent the 60 interim doing public relations, public analyzing, marketing-communication and speech writing on every level of private and governmental organizations. "Words" are Bob's world and he has excelled in the use of them. His efforts on behalf of the world renowned U.S. Information Agency brought him much attention and praise. Major companies such as American Airlines, Pfizer, Inc., CIENA, Pepsico, American Express and LILCO have all utilized his communication skills.

He has written extensively on topics pertaining to business and employment techniques. Lecturing and organizing workshops for MBA students and company executives has given him worldwide experience. His words have reached a great many eyes and ears.